FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NAACP INVITES PITTSBURGH COMMUNITY TO ITS 64TH ANNUAL HUMAN RIGHTS DINNER

PITTSBURGH, P.A. (April 10, 2018) – The NAACP hosts it's 64th Annual Human Right Dinner event on Tuesday May 1, 2018 at 6:00 p.m., at the Westin Convention Center Hotel, 1000 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15222.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), founded over 100 years ago, has a mission to ensure the political, educational, social and economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate race-based discrimination.

The NAACP will host it's 64th Annual Human Rights Dinner, which is organized to recognize individuals in the community who have been leaders in advancing civil rights. Additionally, the dinner raises funds for the NAACP Pittsburgh location to improve the education, health and wellness of the community. The Keynote speaker for the event will be NAACP National President, Mr. Derrick Johnson.

"We hope to create an awareness for the dinner, but also of our branch location right here in Pittsburgh," says NAACP Board Member, Daryl Milliner, Sr. "The organization, right in the heart of our city, strives to make for a better tomorrow – for everyone."

For more information about the event, please visit www.pghNAACP.org or to purchase tickets, be a sponsor or other questions, please call (412) 471-1024. Lastly, to RSVP at the event on Facebook, search the events page under the title "64th Annual Human Rights Dinner."
