2. HEALTH

In a recent collaboration, the NAACP Pennsylvania State Conference and Rite Aid Corporation have agreed to partner for the purpose of Rite Aid bringing their vaccination clinics to local neighborhoods throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The upcoming vaccine clinic is scheduled for Saturday, April 10, 2021 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Penn Hills School of Entrepreneurship in Pittsburgh. A press release and flyer are attached. For those of you who are in the Pittsburgh vicinity, please pass this information along. The goal is to provide an opportunity and make more accessible locations available for African Americans to get the COVID-19 vaccine if they so desire. At this site, the Johnson and Johnson vaccine will be administered. There is only one dose necessary for this vaccine.
